Deed sent
A. W. Coker
Rule 17th
May 21 58 30th October 1858, in consideration of thirteen hundred & eleven dollars, then due and owing by him to Edward A. Harding conveyed to said Harding all his copy right, title claim and demand of, in and to a map entitled "Coker's new map of North Carolina" then in the progress of construction, covenanting to finish said map and authorizing said Harding to use the copy right thereof, in his own name, or in the name of Coker for the said Harding's benefit, said Harding at the same time covenanting to convey his said right, whenever said sum, interest & expenses, were realized by the sale of said copies.

And whereas said Coker thereafter for value received conveyed to Lyttleton Waddell of Virginia, the residue of his right, title and interest, to said copy right, after satisfaction of a claim, and said Waddell in pursuance of authority given by said Coker A. D. 1857, did secure in his own name said copy right by proper proceedings, in the Clerk's Office of the Western District of Virginia at Staunton.

Now therefore the said Waddell in consideration of the premises and of one dollar to him paid, has bargained sold and assigned and hereby bargains sells & assigns unto

19
The said Harding and his assigns all the said map, and all his copy right, title interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever of in and to the same. Where and to hold the said map copy right and all the profit benefit and advantage that shall or may arise by & from printing, publishing and vending the same unto the said Harding and his assigns, on the terms and conditions of the whole period of time allowed by the acts of the Congress of the United States in that behalf provided.

And the said Waddell likewise bargains and sells unto assigns unto the said Harding and his assigns for the considerations above mentioned, all the finished copies of said map, now in said books for sale from as agent of said Waddell, and hereby authorizes said Harding to comply fully with the obligations imposed on said Coker, by a contract entered into by him before the signing the above mentioned copy right and Samuel Force Provided nevertheless, that when the said Harding shall have sold a sufficient number of the copies hereafter to be published to defray the expenses of publication, and sale including commissions to agents, advertisements and other similar charges & further to repay himself, the said sum of $1511.03 with interest from the 30th October 1858 (one thousand eight hundred & fifty five) then and in that case, this deed and the interest in the copy right hereby conveyed, shall determine the matter void - and said Harding shall recover all the maps in store to said Waddell, just retaining the expenses of publishing the same

And Harding, in his part covenants for himself this assigns that he will in no case sell, or allow to be sold, any copy of said map for a less price than eight dollars without the written consent of said Waddell or his assigns.

And Harding further covenants that the net proceeds of the sale of all the maps already finished shall be applied by him first in payment of the debt due J. H. Lechtner of New York, for manufacturing said map and the balance of said proceeds, shall be paid to said Waddell for defraying of other expenses already incurred.

In testimony whereof the said Waddell hath hereunto
